Human Rights Commission Invites Public to Discuss Discrimination and Privilege

Discussion is Final Segment of Salt Lake City's Dialogue on Race Series

SALT LAKE CITY – The Salt Lake City Human Rights Commission will host a community discussion on discrimination and privilege – the final segment of a series of Dialogues on Race – at 6 p.m. on Thursday, March 10, 2011 at North Star Elementary School, 1545 North Morton Drive (1900 West) in Salt Lake City.

The open, roundtable discussion will be initiated by guest speaker Curtis Linton, co-author of Courageous Conversations About Race. Linton is an educational consultant who specializes in issues surrounding racial equity. He is also an executive producer for the School Improvement Network and a member of the Salt Lake City Human Rights Commission.

The Commission hopes the event will help educate, raise public awareness and create a forum for thoughtful discussion on the challenging issues surrounding race and equality.
