Diverse Community Members Invited to Attend Business Day at the Legislature

Mayor's Office of Diversity & Human Rights Encourages Active Participation in Communities

SALT LAKE CITY – Working to engage and empower communities, the Salt Lake City Mayor's Office of Diversity & Human Rights will sponsor "Diverse Business Day at the Legislature" on Tuesday, March 8, 2011, from 9 a.m. to noon at the Utah State Capitol.

The morning's agenda will include advocacy training by Comunidad Unidas and remarks by members of the Utah Senate and House of Representatives. Realtor and Asian Community Advocate Eunice Jones and American Express Vice President and Community Reinvestment Act Officer Jane Shock will be the featured speakers.

The event, free of charge and open to the public, will begin in the East Multipurpose Room (Room 130) at the Utah State Capitol. A continental breakfast will be provided. Seating is limited. Please RSVP to mayor@slcgov.com or call 801-535-7704.
